Section 4. Officer Elections (with the exception of Web Administrator) shall occur thusly:

- A. Once per calendar year during the month of November, at a regularly scheduled organizational meeting.
- B. First, nominations will be taken. Any member may be nominated to any office; members may nominate anyone in the organization excluding themselves. Once nominations have been taken for all positions, elections shall occur in the order of: President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Web Administrator. Nominations may be reopened for later offices after each position is elected.

C. Officers shall be elected by a plurality (which is, the largest share of a vote) of those present and voting, minus those in running for the office in question.

D. Elections may only be held when a quorum is present.

E. In the case of Web Administrator, during a regularly scheduled organizational meeting and at a date determined by the officers before the November election, nominations will be taken. Nominees present their case to the officers outside of the meeting. Based on performance, the officers choose candidates from those nominees to be put up for election during the November election.

Section 5. If there is call to remove an officer from office, the protocol shall be thus: A call to impeach may be brought up by any member of the organization. They shall submit written notice of the grounds for impeachment to the officers at least 10 days before a scheduled organization meeting. The officers will submit an email notification of the impeachment to the membership. At the meeting, the grounds for impeachment must be presented to the group by the member making the call. The officer will have an opportunity to defend themselves. A discussion will occur, at the end of which, a vote shall be taken. A three-fourths majority of those members in attendance must be reached for the officer to be removed. The officer in question may vote on their own impeachment.

Article VI. Faculty Staff/Advisor

Section 1. The organization's advisor will be selected after each election by the elected officers, and will serve in an advisory fashion to the organization.

Article VII. Meetings

Section 1. The organization shall have general meetings once per month during the academic year. The meeting shall be run by the officers.

Section 2. Officer meetings shall occur as deemed necessary by the current officers. If an organization member has concerns that need to be addressed, they may request that an officer meeting be called within two weeks, which they may then attend.

Article VIII. Quorum

Section 1. Quorum of the organization will be required for all official business, and will be comprised of at least 20 active members.

Article IX. Referendum and Recall

Section 1. The officers will oversee all financial matters of the organization. Officers will have the authority to utilize organizational funds for expenditures of up to $50 (fifty US Dollars) without consulting the general membership beforehand. All expenditures over $50 (fifty US Dollars) must be pre-approved by a two-thirds majority vote of the active membership at a general meeting.

Section 2. All voting shall be conducted by a show of hands in a general meeting.

Article XI. Amendments

Section 1. Amendments to the constitution made be proposed at a general meeting by any member of the organization, and ratified by a two-thirds majority vote of the active and present members. Amendments will then take effect immediately. Dates amended shall appear at the end of this document.
